OTHER STATE NEWS.

Encampments of K. N. G. in Ottawa and Newton.KINSLEY, October 24.—John F. Marsh, mayor of this place who was shot by footpads Monday, died yesterday afternoon.The parties who did the shooting came in from the south last evening on horseback and registered at the Alamo hotel as Carl Slater and William Dexter of Kingfisher, O. T. They were rough looking young men. One was about five feet ten inches, the other about five feet eight inches in height. Both were slender and looked to be from 20 to 25 years of age. One wore a dark hat, the other a light one.
One had a boil on his face.Their evident purpose was robbery.
Great excitement and indignation prevail here. Rewards aggregating $1,100 are offered for the apprehension of the parties that did the shooting. They are supposed to have gone toward Oklahoma.
Major J. K. Hudson was billed to speak here this afternoon but canceled the meeting owing to this sad affair.

THEIR LIFE STARTED ROUGHLY.

A Young Man Married Only a Month

Arrested for Horse Stealing.

PARSONS, Oct. 24.—A young couple drove up to the barn of F. H. Hall and put up a team for the night. While putting the team away it was noticed that the outfit was from the city, and suspicions were at once aroused that the team had been stolen from some livery barn in Kansas City.Hall bought Marshal Davidson and he found a postal card from the Nichols Ninth street livery barn at Kansas City which made inquiry of the very team that was then feeding in Hall's stable, and stating that Walter Overton had hired the team last Thursday, but failed to return with it.Marshal Davidson soon had Overton under arrest and a telegram was sent to Kansas City, informing Nichols that his team and buggy together with the thief had been secured. The woman with Overton in his wife, the couple having been married about a month.Nichols arrived from Kansas City yesterday and identified the rig as his property and Overton as the man who had hired it. An effort is being made to solve the matter. Mrs. Overton is innocent of any wrong doing. According to her story this is the third disreputable scrape Overton has gotten into since their marriage.

SOLDIER LIFE AT OTTAWA.

Eighteen Companies of the K. N. G. Are In Camp There.OTTAWA, Oct. 24.—Eighteen companies —infantry, cavalry and artillery—are enjoying the mild excitement of military life in the big camp at Forest park. These companies will average thirty men each, making a total of over 500 men.The following is the schedule of time for drills each day during the encampment, and the general commanding extends an invitation to the public to attend any and all of them: Company drill, 6:45 a. m.; guard mount, 9:00 a. m.; battalion drill, 10:30 a. m.; regimental drill, 2:00 p. m.; evening parade, 5:30 p. m.At each of these drills, except company drill, the band and all the troops participate.On Thursday will be the street parade, starting at Camp Townsend at 1:30 p. m.
Immediately after street parade will take place the sham battle, which will be a grand affair.On Friday at 1:30 p. m. the troops will be inspected on parade ground, inside the race track, by Major Atkinson, after which a grand brigade review will take place.

K. N. G. AT NEWTON.

About One Hundred and Fifty at "Camp Davis."NEWTON, Oct. 24.—The encampment of the Kansas National Guard began here yesterday at Camp Davis. This is only a part of the entire national guard in the state, other encampments being held at the same time this week at Ottawa and Concordia.About 150 men are in camp at present and the number will be augmented throughout the week by the arrival of other troops.At present the camp is composed of the following: Company D Second regiment K. N. G. of Newton, Lieut. Kaufman, commanding; Company E Second regiment K. N. G. of Hutchinson, Capt. Campbell commanding; company F, Second regiment K. N. G. of Larned, Capt. Hills commanding; company H, Second regiment K. N. G. of Eldorado, Capt. Douglass commanding; section of artillery of Wichita, Lieut. Downing commanding; Second regiment band of Wichita.

TURN VIKING HALL DEDICATED.

Leavenworth Turners Open Their New Hall With a Ball and Banquet.LEAVENWORTH, Oct. 24.—The Leavenworth Turners last night dedicated their fine new hall with a ball and banquet.
Hundreds of guests were present and the occasion was a most enjoyable one.There were four tables, each fifty feet long, in the banquet room. Each table seated thirty-four people.The old building which the new hall replaces, was destroyed by fire on the night of September 19, 1894.A few days following the fire a committee was appointed to provide the ways and means. An issue of twenty year bonds, bearing 6 per cent interest, was decided upon, and the building to cost not to exceed $25,000.The new hall contains all the modern conveniences. The front consists of pressed brick, trimmed with stone. It is three stories high. The first floor contains six store rooms, all of which are already rented and the most of them occupied.

A Veteran Found Dead.

LEAVENWORTH, Oct. 24.—James M.
Wilson, an old veteran, was found dead in a disorderly house on Ohio street,under peculiar circumstances. It is claimed by the inmates of the house that he came there late Monday night and took a large amount of ether with suicidal intent on going to bed, and that they knew nothing of his condition until he was found dead yesterday morning.
Others allege that Wilson was dragged for the purpose of robbery. No money was found on his person, and there was evidence of violence.

Hurt by a Runaway Team.

OTTAWA, Oct. 24.—While Justice Robbins and Constable Smith were seated in a buggy at the park, viewing the military evolutions, this afternoon, a runaway team dashed into their rig, completely demolishing it and hurling the inmates with terrific violence to the ground. Mr.
Smith escaped with slight injury. Mr.
Robbins was thrown against a tree, and rendered unconscious.

Col. A. S. Everett's Funeral.

ATCHISON, Oct. 24.—The funeral of the late Aaron S. Everett occurred this afternoon. Rev. John Henry Hopkins conducted the services at the residence of the deceased at 1:30 o'clock, after which the remains were taken to the Washington lodge and placed in a casket the remains and conveyed them to Mount Vernon cemetery, the Knights Templar acting as a guard of honor.

A Negro Burglar Caught.

RUSSELL, Oct. 24.—A young negro burglarized the U. P. depot at Walker while the agent was away, and got about twenty dollars. He then came to Russell with two young men who did not know of the robbery, and went to work for one of them. Officers went to arrest him and he gave them a very lively foot race but was finally run down and surrendered.

Another Oil Flow at Neodesha.

NEODESHA, Oct. 24.—Cross well, No. 2 in the northern limits of this city, was shot yesterday. Inside of an hour following the explosion five times, a column of oil was thrown 100 feet high. Its capacity is estimated at close to 1,000 barrels a day. It is being piped into small tanks connected with a 40,000 barrel storage tank.

Fort Scott Driving Club Organized.

FORT SCOTT, Oct. 24.—The members of the Fort Scott Driving club met and effected a permanent organization. They will make it a stock company and issue stock to the members. This will be the means of giving Fort Scott a organization which will give an annual race meet.

An Aged Woman Has Both Arms Broken.

EMPORIA, Oct. 24.—Mrs. Wm. Kipp, a lady about sixty years of age, who lives eight miles southeast of Ope, was driving in a wagon with her husband when they came to a bad place in the road which overturned the vehicle, breaking both arms of the aged lady.

Henry Watterson at Emporia.

EMPORIA, Oct. 24.—Henry Watterson last evening at the State Normal school addressed the largest paid audience ever gathered together in this city. After the lecture an informal reception was held at which many grand army veterans shook hands with the eloquent ex-confederate.

Slashed With a Knife.

ATCHISON, Oct. 24.—Jim Colgan was slashed with a knife in the hands of Joe Blaha at a dance at the home of Joseph Shultz, north of town. Blaha was drinking, and it is claimed that he tried to start a fight.

ARTISTS GROW FLOSSY.

Because a Picture of the Nude Can't Be Shown in the White House.WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The hesitation about giving the nude picture, "Love and Life," a place on the walls of the White House, has aroused the artists.
Andrews, who directs the affairs of the great Corcoran gallery, said today:"To refuse to hang this picture in the White House, where it belongs, will be to humiliate this nation, and earn for it the contempt of other governments. I cannot understand why Mr. Watts should have presented his painting to this country, when any other government on the face of the earth would have reached out eager hands for it. I remember well the companion picture, " Love and Death," which is owned by the British government, and which hangs in the government gallery at Kensington, I think. It is a beautiful piece of work, as are all his paintings, and there is nothing in that, and there can be nothing in this now in the cellar of the White House, against which the slightest objection can lodge. The purity of conception of this work is unquestioned, and to object to anything which comes from his brush is to exhibit a narrow prejudice that is unpardonable in these days of broad minds and liberal thoughts."Nevertheless, the picture, after remaining boxed in the Georgetown custom house a month, is now leaning against a wall in the cellar of the White House, and no one is willing to take the responsibility of hanging it. The question now rests with President Cleveland.

STATUE TO MCLELLAN.

An Equestrian Figure Unveiled to Him at Philadelphia.PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—In the presence of civic and military dignitaries from all parts of the country and amid the crack of musketry and the strains of martial music, the equestrian statue of Major General McClellan was unveiled on the north plaza of the city hall this afternoon.The general's widow and their son, Col. Geo. B. McClellan, Governors Patterson of Pennsylvania; Reynolds of Delaware; McCorkle of West Virginia; and Fishback of Arkansas; Maj. Gen. Schufield, commander-in-chief of the army, and a host of other equally distinguished persons, were here.Rudy's Pile Suppository is guaranteed

HELD IN CONTEMPT.

Reinhart Says He No More Fears the IndictmentsThan If He Were Mikado of Japan.

MERELY TECHNICAL.

The Law Can't Reach Railroad Presidents.Bail Fixed at Ten Thousand Dollars.NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Joseph W. Rein-hart, former president of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad system, when asked today about his indictment in Chicago last Friday for a violation of the interstate commerce law in granting rebates on freight to Nelson Morris, who was also indicted, said: "The indictment don't amount to anything. I fear them no more than if I was the mikado of Japan. They are purely technical."W. J. Jenkins, manager for the G. W.
Hammond company, packers, and J. A.
Hanley, who is a defendant with ex-President Reinhart, of the Santa Fe railroad, have given bail in the United States court. They were indicted by the federal grand jury in connection with the Santa Fe rebate case.Mr. Jenkins' bail was fixed at $5,000.
His bond was signed by Joseph S. Smith and Kenneth H. Bell. Mr. Hanley's bond was fixed at $10,000. His surety was Theodore E. Shonis, who scheduled real estate worth $30,000. Judge Groscup has fixed the bail of the others who were indicted as follows: Nelson Morris and ex-President Reinhart, $10,000 each; Isaac Thompson, the shipper, $5,000.

GROVER TO GO DUCKING.

The President Will Go Hunting When He Goes Back to Washington.GREENWICH, Conn., Oct. 24.—The president and Mrs. Cleveland, with Mrs.
Benedict and Miss Helen Benedict, left here at 9:15 for New York.NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—President Cleveland arrived here this morning shortly after 10 o'clock. He is supposed to be stopping at 24 West 35th street, the home of the family physician, Dr. Joseph D.
Bryant.It is understood that immediately after his return to Washington the president will take another ducking trip. The lighthouse tender Violet, in which he made his last trip down the Potomac, has been ordered here from the Chesapeake, and it will be in readiness to leave not later than Friday or Saturday of this week. Secretary Carlisle, it is understood, will accompany the president.
The length of the proposed trip is not announced.

TOM REED UP NORTH.

He Is Entertained at Minneapolis Where He Will Speak Tonight.MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 24.—Thomas B. Reed arrived here today and was at once taken in charge by the local Republican committee. He was breakfasted at the residence of Congressman Loren Fletcher, at whose personal solicitation he agreed to come to Minneapolis after resting from his journey.
Mr. Reed was shown about the city and made two brief speeches, one at High School hall to the students and on "change to the grain men.They were merely pleasant little talks complimentary to the city and the northwest. At 6 o'clock he was driven to Senator Washburn's residence, Fair Oaks, for lunch. This was followed by two informal receptions at Fair Oaks and at the lumber exchange. Tonight he speaks in exposition hall, where Mr.
Harrison was nominated in 1892.

AN ACTOR STARVING.

Maude Granger's Ex-Husband Falls on the Street With Faintness.NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Revelle Germain, a clever actor and well-known as an interpreter of juvenile roles, fell to the sidewalk last night in front of a leading hotel in a spasm of weakness, resulting from starvation.He was the husband of Maude Granger, but has been separated from her for some time. It was supposed that he was in easy circumstances, he being too proud until today to make known his necessity. The friend to whom he applied for aid today reached him with the solicited assistance just as he was being taken to the hospital in an ambulance.Our fellow-townsmen, C. C. Baker,

NO CAMPAIGN TAXES.

Postmaster General Bissell Issues a Strict Order to Free Delivery Offices.WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Postmaster General Bissell has addressed a circular letter to all free delivery postoffices in the country relative to forced campaign contributions. He cites two sections of the civil service law, which provide that no federal employee shall solicit or give money for political purposes, also that no officer shall discharge, promote or degrade any or in any manner change the official rank or comparison of any officer or employee, or threaten or threaten so to do, for giving or withholding or neglecting to make any contribution of money or other valuable things for any political purpose.Gen. Bissell adds: "The foregoing provisions apply to your office, it being a free delivery postoffice and must be strictly complied with. It also must be clearly understood that no clerk carrier or other employee of your office will be jeopardized in his position for a refusal to comply with a request for a political contribution. Upon receipt of this letter you will prepare a number of copies hereof and post the same conspicuously in each division of your office."The postmaster general speaking of this order said that it was a compliance with the law and he intended to have it enforced in all offices in the department.
The postoffice department, he said, "is a business, not a political institution. It has been my endeavor to conduct it on business principles, so as to give the people the best possible mail facilities.
We do not want the service crippled or interrupted for political advantage."

SANTA FE DERAILED.

Fast Express Collides With a Gravel Train Near Chillicothe, Ill.CHILlicothe, Ill., Oct. 22.—The fast New York express on the Santa Fe, due here at 9 o'clock in the morning collided with a gravel train in the yards today and was derailed. The engines were badly damaged and the monetary loss will be very heavy. The engineers and firemen jumped and escaped injury except Engineer Foulkner of the express, who was badly scalded. It is thought that he will not recover.[The above dispatch appears in the Chicago Herald of yesterday morning.
If the news was received at the offices here it was not given to reporters.]

GUATEMALA IS HASTY.

A Mexican Newspaper Criticizes the Vote for Terminating Negotiations.MEXICO CITY, Mexico, Oct. 24.—The Partido Liberal, the official organ of the Mexican government, severely criticizes Guatemala as fixing November 4 as the date for the departure for Mexico of Emilio de Leon, boundary negotiator, who was derailed. This, the Partido Liberal construes as a policy of procrastination in the hope that some foreign power will intervene.It is reasoned that the United States will interfere to protect the holdings of the American bank syndicate, which are ostensibly in Guatemala, but which are claimed as being in reality in the state of Chiapas, in Mexico.
